

Success Is NOT An Accident – Set Goals and Move Forward

What do you want as an Artist?

Money, fame, creative expression or a combination of all these and more.

How are you going to get there? Successful people have goals. You can never hit a target you cannot see.

Your mindset and the attitude you approach your art business with will determine the outcome more than anything else.

If you are stuck or unsure where to start this course will get you going.

With this course you will...

- Identify your objectives & commit to action
- Set goals and outline your personal strategy
- Take action and develop good habits

You will learn personal development and practical planning tools to use over and over again in all areas of your life. A blend of mentoring, coaching, and practical business planning to take your art practice to a new level.

You will be...

- Accepting responsibility and taking control of your life
- Assessing your current business position
- Charting a course for continuing growth and development

You'll receive a spiral bound manual covering all of the topics below, your own personal workbook, a cd with audio visualisation and relaxation exercises, and a planning spreadsheet.
